

Illuminating Women's Spring 2019 Conference, titled Ignite Your Radiance 2019: Claim Your Power and Liberate Your Brilliant Life, is the 3rd annual gathering of women from our community. We invite you to align with us and our members at this Conference by becoming a participating Sponsor in our signature annual event.

Illuminating Women is a Seattle-area membership organization committed to inspiring and empowering women to make a positive impact on the world.

We provide a safe environment for women to learn, express themselves, authentically connect, and develop strong relationships as we celebrate the diversity among women. Our goal is to provide opportunities year-round for our community to be inspired and illuminated both personally and professionally.
